PBIS Student Ambassador's Club Application

The Mission Behind PBIS

The Manor PBIS committee collaborates to establish systems that effectively teach appropriate behavior to all students and staff, utilize research-based interventions, make data-driven decisions, monitor student progress, and build the capacity of teachers. As a team, we will continue to create a culture of personal responsibility, integrity, critical thinking, and accountability through a supportive, nurturing, and active learning environment that ensures each student succeeds and becomes a purposeful member of our global society.

Purpose/Rationale: To establish school-wide systems and practices for positive behavior interventions and supports.

As the PBIS team at Manor, we believe that ...

- If we...
 - Commit to building a positive culture
 - Provide individual and specific recognition
 - Support teachers through the PBIS best practices
 - Develop a culture of shared leadership through inclusive strategies
 - Support department chairs and teachers as they drive PBIS
- Then,
 - Create a culture of personal responsibility, integrity, critical thinking and accountability through a supportive, nurturing, and active POSITIVE learning environment
 - Each student succeeds and becomes a purposeful member of our global society

The Mission Behind PBIS's Student Ambassadors Club

The Manor PBIS committee aspires to work directly with students to gain insight into the lives of our 21st-century adolescents. By adding the perspectives of our students to the planning and execution phases of our endeavors, we are better able to positively change the school climate, boost the morale of the student population, and increase the success rate of our program.

What can I, the student, stand to gain from joining?
